Dear Harold, 6/23/95

Enclosed you will find a review of a new book on the RFK assassination by that noted authority, Gerald Posner. You may have already seen it. I thought about writing the NYTimes Bookreview section and include a copy of the letter I sent to Posner, to which there has been no response, of course. Perhaps I will before too long, but currently I am enthralled with Never Again! and working on that paper Dennis and I will be presenting in August. I hope Lesar, et. al. will be able to pull off that press conference. But given the abdication of the press and media, which is so amply documented in Never Again!, I guess it might just be wishful thinking to hope that much will come from it. My limited experience with the press in this area is that not only do reporters lack knowledge of the context but even when you make a sincere effort to provide some context and documents they still don't get it or are just interested in whatever sensational value they can superficially see in what you tell them.

One question I have about the paper we are working on. Do you think it would be best to use original sources such as Whitewash and Post Mortem to document instiutional failures or draw more from Never Again! to give it more attention? I also thought about including an appendix of selected documents. It is going slowly so far because I have also been involved in a couple home improvement projects.

Hope you and Lillian are well. I am looking forward to seeing you both in August. Take care.

Best,

Gerry
